

Amherst College Law Review

Issue 1 Contents

Note from the Editor

Andrew W Smith
Editor-in-Chief

Amherst College

Creating a Legal Basis for Intellectual Property Through Human Rights: Imperatives, Impediments and Irreconcilable Tensions

Rahul Bajaj and Devarshi Mukhopadhyay

Nagpur University – NALSAR University of Law

Demystifying the Indian FRAND Regime: The Interplay of Competition Law and Intellectual Property

Raghavi Viswanath

National Law Institute University

Mexican Deportations from Los Angeles in 1931: How a Small-Scale Campaign Took Root and Repatriated Tens of Thousands of Immigrants

Seth Massey

Yale University

Reconstituting the Conflict between Geographical Indications and Trademarks

Vanshaj Jain

National Law School of India University

Subjectivity in Legal Cinema: Where the Film Meets the Spectator

Kruthika N.S.

West Bengal National University of Juridical Science

The ‘Rarest of Rare’ Doctrine: Questioning the Administration of the Death Penalty in India

Vrinda Vinayak

National Law University Delhi

Amherst College Student Staff

Editorial Board

Editor-in-Chief – Andrew W Smith

Senior Articles Editor – Patrick Canfield, Ashley Perry

Senior Technical Editor – Sunna Juhn, Joon Kim

Senior Production Editor – William Zaubler

Articles Editors

Natalia Khoudian

David Ingraham

Yannis Kalogiannis

Ethan Rosenthal

Technical Editors

Shirley Duquene

Soledad Slowing-Romero

Yun Yamanaka

Simon Stracher

Nekhoe Hogan